

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has been invaluable as I no longer receive annoying phone solicitations at my home. I used to receive at least 3 per week.